

Looking to go deeper? Check out some these resources you and your family can use to continue to build a healthy, happy, and holy family.

BOOKS ON MARRIAGE

“The Five Love Languages” by Gary Chapman

This is a must read for everyone. Gary Chapman does a great job of breaking down how people give and receive love.

“His Need, Her Needs” by Willard F. Hurley

Not meeting the needs of your spouse? This book unpacks some of the basic needs of the males and females.

“Sacred Marriage” by Gary Thomas

Seeking a loving relationship that reflects the love Christ has for the Church? This is the book that puts you on the track to building one.

BOOKS ON PARENTING

“Why Christians Kids Rebel” by Tim Kimmel

The title suggests this book is only for people with kids who are rebelling. The truth is, if you are raising a child in a Christian home you must read this book.

“Raising Great Kids” by Dr. Henry Cloud & Dr. John Townsend

Looking for advice on how to raise your child to become a responsible, caring adult? Read this book!

