

Weekly Work | September 6

God Moves in Power Through the Gospel

Overview

The sermon series “God Moves in Power” is a journey through the book of Acts, where we witness the Holy Spirit at work through prayer, the gospel, the Church, and ordinary people. As we explore the story of the early church, we’ll discover that the same God who moved powerfully then is still moving today. This series will challenge and encourage us to live with bold faith, expectant prayer, and a willingness to join God’s ongoing mission in the world. The story of Acts is far from over and we’re invited to be a part of it. (Note: This series will explore the Book of Acts thematically rather than going through it chapter by chapter or verse-by-verse.)

This Week’s Reading

From Jerusalem, the gospel arrives in Athens, the intellectual capital of the ancient world. The Scriptures for this week highlight the centrality of the cross and the wisdom of God, which so often looks like foolishness to the world. How do you see God’s wisdom on display in the crucified Christ?

- Acts 17
- John 1:1-18
- 1 Corinthians 1:18-25
- Colossians 1:15-20

As you read, ask yourself:

- What do these chapters teach me about who God is (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit)?
- What do they teach me about humanity and the Church?
- What do they teach me or reveal about me personally?