

Weekly Work | October 29 & November 1
God Moves in Power through Ordinary People

Overview
The sermon series "God Moves in Power" is a journey through the book of Acts, where we witness the Holy Spirit at work through prayer, the gospel, the Church, and ordinary people. As we explore the story of the early church, we'll discover that the same God who moved powerfully then is still moving today. This series will challenge and encourage us to live with bold faith, expectant prayer, and a willingness to join God's ongoing mission in the world. The story of Acts is far from over and we're invited to be a part of it. (Note: This series will explore the Book of Acts thematically rather than going through it chapter by chapter or verse-by-verse.)

This Week's Reading
Throughout Acts, ordinary people use their spiritual gifts and make themselves available for the Lord to work through their lives. And, in fact, this happens all over the New Testament. How might these passages be inviting you into small acts of faithfulness today?

- Acts 16:11-15, 40
- Acts 18:1-4, 24-28
- Acts 21:7-14
- Luke 8:1-3
- 1 Corinthians 16:15-18
- Romans 16:1-16

As you read, ask yourself

- What do these chapters teach me about who God is (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit)?
- What do they teach me about humanity and the Church?
- What do they teach or reveal about me personally?
