

Weekly Work | August 16
God Moves in Power through Prayer

Overview

The sermon series “God Moves in Power” is a journey through the book of Acts, where we witness the Holy Spirit at work through prayer, the gospel, the Church, and ordinary people. As we explore the story of the early church, we’ll discover that the same God who moved powerfully then is still moving today. This series will challenge and encourage us to live with bold faith, expectant prayer, and a willingness to join God’s ongoing mission in the world. The story of Acts is far from over and we’re invited to be a part of it. (Note: This series will explore the Book of Acts thematically rather than going through it chapter by chapter or verse-by-verse.)

This Week’s Reading

Prayer has the power to transform. It’s in prayer that Peter sees God’s vision for Gentile inclusion (Acts 10) and it’s within the context of prayer that Paul brings transformation to Gentile converts (e.g. Lydia). How might God want to transform the people in our city through prayer?

- Acts 10
- Acts 16
- John 4:1-42
- Ephesians 2:11-22
- Romans 10:12-15

As you read, ask yourself

- What do these chapters teach me about who God is (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit)?
- What do they teach me about humanity and the Church?
- What do they teach or reveal about me personally?
