

Weekly Work | September 20

God Moves in Power Through the Gospel

Overview

The sermon series “God Moves in Power” is a journey through the book of Acts, where we witness the Holy Spirit at work through prayer, the gospel, the Church, and ordinary people. As we explore the story of the early church, we’ll discover that the same God who moved powerfully then is still moving today. This series will challenge and encourage us to live with bold faith, expectant prayer, and a willingness to join God’s ongoing mission in the world. The story of Acts is far from over and we’re invited to be a part of it. (Note: This series will explore the book of Acts thematically rather than going through it chapter by chapter or verse-by-verse.)

This Week’s Reading

This week, we invited Dr. Ajai Lall, founder of Central India Christian Mission (CICM), to speak to our congregation. He highlighted for us the power of the gospel to not only change you and me but to change the whole world. As Acts 1:8 states, “But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” How do the passages below highlight God’s heart for the nations?

- Acts 1:8
- Matthew 9:1-38
- Romans 15:14-22

As you read, ask yourself

- What do these chapters teach me about who God is (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit)?
- What do they teach me about humanity and the Church?
- What do they teach or reveal about me personally?